Worship Him

I will comfort those who mourn – give them beauty for ashes.

Preach good tidings to the poor, and heal the broken hearted.

Proclaiming liberty to captives – I'll open prison doors to those who are bound.

They'll be called trees of righteousness: the planting of the Lord – that God be glorified.

Worship Him – the God of Love.

Immanuel – the Lord above.

And praise His name – for all He's done in giving life – to everyone.

Look to Me and you'll be saved – all ye peoples of the earth.

If you're thirsty, do not fear. I'll pour floods upon the dry ground.

I have declared, and have proclaimed to you;

there is no one who can deliver from My hand.

And surely in Me there is righteousness and strength.

I am the Lord. I am the only God.

The Gift of Light

Once on a night were two travelers come. Sought for abode when in Bethlehem.

Marvelous thing happened on that night: Jesus, our Lord, was born.

Signs from above told of Heaven's joy. Glad for the birth of the baby boy.

Rapture and praise filled the shepherds' hearts. Jesus, our Lord, was born.

Shining over all the earth! Gift of light from God!

Hallelu-lal-lal-lal-lal-lal-lal! Oh you are a wondrous Gift of Light!

This Gift of Light was seen among us. Came down and made His place beside us.

And He has set a fire inside us. From now on this great light will shine through men!

This Gift of Light was seen among us. Came down and made His place beside us.

And He has set a fire inside us. From now on this great light will shine through men!
